If you studied one of the languages DU offers before, have AP/IB credits, or spoke a DU-taught language at home:

- Take the placement test
  - If you place above Language 1003: Take one course of Language 2000 or greater
  - If you place in Language 1001-1003: Complete the sequence through Language 1003

Completing the FOLA requirement at DU:

- If you have not taken a language class before or want to learn a new language:
  - Choose a language between Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Latin, Russian, and Spanish
  - We will evaluate your credits
    - If you place above Language 1003, you have completed the requirement
    - If you place below Language 1003, complete Language 1001-1003

- If you have transfer credits for a language taught at DU:

- If you have credits for a language not taught at DU:
  - Contact the CWLC director, Virginie Cassidy

- If you're a Spanish heritage speaker or lived in a Spanish-speaking country:
  - Take the Spanish Language Heritage Assessment and speak with Professor Lina Reznicek-Parrado

* Requirements may vary depending on your specific degree. Please check with your major advisor for the specific requirements for your degree program.
