The Lamont Bow Art Ensemble is a string chamber ensemble that made its debut in March 2020. The goal of the group and the “class” that it is a part of is to strengthen all individuals in the ensemble by allowing them to treat the orchestra as a chamber group. That is to say, the final project (a performance) will be led by the players, with no conductor. The director of the ensemble, Basil Vendryes, leads rehearsals and helps with many decisions for the group, but in the end, the individual members bring the music to life and direct each and every phrase. The beauty of Bow Art is the investment and ownership every player takes for the presentation of each work—professionalism, musicianship and stewardship. We are honored to present this program to the community and hope you enjoy tonight’s performance!

Lamont Society

Donors to the Lamont School of Music are an integral part of the Lamont community. Since 1983, the Lamont Society has provided financial and other support that has sustained our program's excellence. It has enabled us to purchase instruments, underwrite masterclasses and guest artist performances, support touring ensembles, provide students with professional development funds, support faculty initiatives, maintain scholarships for our deserving students, and much more. We are deeply grateful for this philanthropy!
