Biographies

Rosy Barba, a goose-lover originally from San Diego, California, is a certified yapper when she isn't really sleepy. She has been playing the oboe for an extended period of time and still can't make a reed correctly. When she isn't crashing out about the oboe, she can be seen eating a sandwich and grapes, or looking for geese. Did I mention she likes geese? Her worst fear is the Mozart Oboe Concerto, but she's being really brave about it today.

Gabby Gillespie is an oboist originally from Las Vegas, Nevada, which most of us didn't conceptualize as a place where someone could actually experience adolescence. She can most often be seen disciplining Rosy in large ensemble rehearsals for not counting her rests correctly. Her favorite oboist is Eugene Izotov.

Daniel Rosson is a Colorado-born conductor and bassoonist. He is just happy to be here.

Luca Dovalina, born in Spain and Miami, Florida simultaneously, is a lover of meal prepping, an expert on all things Germany, and a VERY stealthy stealer of Phillip and Daniel's cane from the reed room. When he's not working aimlessly on his scales in Lamont's only practice room without a window, he can be seen playing Marvel Rivals, reading fanfiction in orchestra, and begging Gabby to take him to the Airport. Luca is Daniel's lover and Rosy's BEST friend.

Damien Krzyzek is only 30% tired of Rosy's shenanigans.

This recital is presented in partial fulfillment of a Bachelor Degree in Performance

Rosy Barba is from the studio of Ian Wisekal

Reception to follow in the Spencer Artist Reception Room
