Student Carillon Concert

Joey Brink
Director

Sunday, November 15, 2026
3:00 p.m.
Williams Carillon, Ritchie Center Lawn

UNIVERSITY OF DENVER

Robert & Judi Newman Center for the Performing Arts

This is an outdoor concert.

Listen from anywhere you can see the tower. The south courtyard (off Asbury Ave), the bleachers beneath the tower, and the north amphitheater are all great places to listen.

Following the concert, meet in the south courtyard (off Asbury Ave) to greet the performers and enjoy a small reception.

Biographies

Finn Vaughan is a third-year student at DU. He grew up just north of Denver in Fort Collins. If he's not practicing in the Bell Tower, you can find Finn by himself at the nearest movie theatre, rock climbing, or watching his favorite sports teams.

Grace Olivier is a fourth-year student at DU, majoring in violin performance. She is originally from Kansas City. When not playing music, carillon or violin, Grace enjoys hiking, camping, and kayaking.

Jack Horn is a second-year student at DU, majoring in Biology with plans to minor in chemistry, film, and accounting. Born and raised is Sarasota Florida, he enjoys spending time outside, wether that is playing golf, surfing, gardening, running, or now, skiing. He has always loved music, steaming from his parents, with his favorite artists being Daniel Caesar and Cameron Winter.

Bryn Yehle is a fourth-year student at DU, majoring in physics with minors in Math, Biology and Astrophysics. She has also played piano, oboe and double tenor steel pan. In her free time she enjoys hiking, knitting and reading.

Claire Hicks is a second-year at DU. She is majoring in Biology and Spanish and minoring in Leadership Studies and Chemistry. She's originally from Wyoming, but she's loved living in the city so far. When she's not in school, Claire enjoys skiing, reading, crocheting, and getting outside!

Natalie Penk is a first year student at DU and she is currently undeclared, trying to explore what she is truly passionate about. She has lived in Colorado her whole life and enjoys calling Denver home. She started playing piano around 7 years old and was excited to pick up the carillon which in ways are similar. She enjoys a diverse mix of music and everything outdoors.

Piers McGowin is a senior at the University of Denver studying economics. He is an active member of the club Ultimate Frisbee team and enjoys golf in his free time. Originally from Atlanta, Georgia, he has also played the carillon for the past three years.

Delaney Turner is a senior at DU majoring in marketing and studio art. She's from Iowa but has always been drawn to the mountains. In her free time she loves hiking, skiing, listening to music, and anything that takes place in the art studios!

I am Owen Kortsch. I am majoring in history. I hail from Denver and absolutely love my home state. I hope to one day write a fantasy book series. I enjoy skiing, running, writing, fantasy/sci fi books and swimming.

Sara Lozano is a third-year student here at the University of Denver. She is double majoring in Psychology and Gender and Women's Studies with minors in Chinese and Mental Health and Wellness. She is from Goshen, Indiana aka the middle of nowhere. When not playing carillon, Sara enjoys making custom press-on nails for her small business and playing Papa's Pastaria.

Autumn Schimnoski is a second-year student at DU, majoring in Game Development with a minor in Emergent Digital Practices. She's here from Minneapolis, Minnesota, born and raised. Her other pastimes include playing video games, listening to music, and playing pinball.

Zach Billings is a third-year student at DU. He is currently majoring in psychology and socio-legal studies with a minor in leadership studies. He was born and raised here in Colorado and loves to take advantage of all that it has to offer including hiking, camping, and skiing. He is also an avid rugby player both here at DU and in the broader community.

Kailey Hulihan is a fourth-year student at DU. She is majoring in both Criminology and Psychology with a minor in Biology. She is originally from Illinois, but glad to call Colorado home for her schooling. Her passion for music and past piano experience exposed her to interest in carillon. When not practicing and playing the instrument, she enjoys spending time with friends and loved ones, reading, watching movies, and teaching 18 months–5 years gymnastics at the Ritchie Center.
